

Stephen Tanzer's
International

July/August 2009, Issue 145
Wine Cellar

89
POINTS!

(50/50 blend) Bright ruby. Peppery redcurrant and cherry aromas are complicated by whiffs of funky smoked meat and cracked pepper. Deeper dark berry flavors are firm by dusty tannins and become sweeter with air. Finishes with good focus and a repeating dark berry note. This would be nice with a hunk of grilled lamb.

Stephen Tanzer's
International

July/August 2009, Issue 145
Wine Cellar

89
POINTS!

(50/50 blend) Bright ruby. Peppery redcurrant and cherry aromas are complicated by whiffs of funky smoked meat and cracked pepper. Deeper dark berry flavors are firm by dusty tannins and become sweeter with air. Finishes with good focus and a repeating dark berry note. This would be nice with a hunk of grilled lamb.

Stephen Tanzer's
International

July/August 2009, Issue 145
Wine Cellar

89
POINTS!

(50/50 blend) Bright ruby. Peppery redcurrant and cherry aromas are complicated by whiffs of funky smoked meat and cracked pepper. Deeper dark berry flavors are firm by dusty tannins and become sweeter with air. Finishes with good focus and a repeating dark berry note. This would be nice with a hunk of grilled lamb.

Stephen Tanzer's
International

July/August 2009, Issue 145
Wine Cellar

89
POINTS!

(50/50 blend) Bright ruby. Peppery redcurrant and cherry aromas are complicated by whiffs of funky smoked meat and cracked pepper. Deeper dark berry flavors are firm by dusty tannins and become sweeter with air. Finishes with good focus and a repeating dark berry note. This would be nice with a hunk of grilled lamb.

