

GINJINHA

CHERRY LIQUEUR

WITH WILD CHERRIES INSIDE

Ginjinha is a Portuguese brandy-based cherry liqueur made by infusing sour cherries (Morello cherries) in Aguardente which is a Portuguese Brandy. Sour cherries have been steadily increasing in alcohol content whilst in the bottle. Ginjinha is served in a small glass with a cherry inside and is a typical drink in Lisbon.

Product of Portugal

 Vino et Spiritus

IMPORTERS & DISTRIBUTORS OF FINE BEVERAGES

www.vinoetspiritus.com | sales@vinoetspiritus.com

