Estate: The Hähn family has winemaking tradition as far back as 1648, the winery has been in Kobern since 1892. Oenologist Konrad Hähn now continues this tradition and has achieved 2 national awards for excellence, is recommended every year by Feinschmecker Magazine and was among the Top 100 estates in 2004. He grows mainly Riesling and a small percentage of Pinot Noir. The terroir is slate soil and all vines are planted on steep terraced slopes only.

Tasting note: There's an austerity about this kabinett, though it's elegant and well-integrated. Peach, nectarine and grapefruit flavors hold court with a lining of mineral, followed by a nice salty aftertaste. Drink now through 2022.

Food affinity: Great to enjoy on its own, but also great with salads and spicy dishes or fusion cuisine.
